

Please make sure that the CBA does not get the law passed to be able to contact individuals because of past business contacts. If we want to contact them, we know how to use the phone!